

Puppet Workshop Rubric

Visual Arts Curriculum Expectations (B1)	Highly Effective	Effective	Somewhat Effective	Limited
Demonstrated an understanding of content (concepts, ideas, procedures) in creative process (use of cardboard, scissors, glue, crayons etc.)
Demonstrated an understanding of elements of visual art (line, shape, space, colour, texture)
Demonstrated an ability to communicate feelings, ideas, and understandings through production of artwork.
Drama Curriculum Expectations (D1)	Highly Effective	Effective	Somewhat Effective	Limited
Rehearsal:
Use of planning skills (generating ideas, brainstorming, organizing project) Application of creative process to dramatic play
Performance:
Communication for audiences (clear and effective communication of characters, story, feelings, solution)
Application of knowledge and skills – use a loud voice, the puppet faces forward, use gestures
Use of other strategies and conventions such as dialogue, narrator, staying in character
Story has a beginning, middle and end; characters, problem, solution; title, ending sentence, focus.				